India and France sign MoU for new National Museum

India and France on Thursday (December 19, 2024) signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) for the development of the new National Museum, on the lines of the Louvre in Paris, at the historic North Block and South Block in the national capital. The museum, named Yuga Yugeen Bharat, when completed would be the largest in the world. The agreement was signed by Herve Barbaret, Director General and CEO of France Museums, and B.R. Mani, Director General of the National Museum of India. External Affairs Minister S. Jaishankar, who was present at the signing, said that when the South Block and North Block become the kind of museums that are envisaged, "I think we would veritably be seeing the inspiration for the remaking of Bharat."
