Dave & Buster's ramps up India expansion with Mumbai store launch

American dining and entertainment chain Dave & Buster's is expanding its footprint in India with the opening of its second location at Infinity Mall in Mumbai. The launch follows the success of its 27,000sqft flagship outlet in Koramangala, Bangalore, the brand's first global franchise store. Led by the Malpani Group, an Indian conglomerate and the brand's master franchisee, the expansion will see Dave & Buster's open in more key cities as part of a broader national rollout. Keeping its signature "Eat. Drink. Play. Watch" format, the new Mumbai venue will combine restaurant-style dining with a full-service bar, immersive arcade gaming, and social experiences; a model that the company says has found a strong following in the Indian market.

India's next mega aquarium coming soon to Hyderabad's Nehru Zoo

Hyderabad is all set to welcome one of India's largest and most immersive public aquariums within the Nehru Zoological Park (NZP). With a tunnel-like walk-through in the future, this INR 50 crore initiative seeks to redefine how tourists experience marine diversity in the very heart of Telangana. Spanning approximately 4,000 square metre, the new aquarium isn't simply another tank-lined museum. The highlight will be a tunnel walk-through attraction, providing the experience of walking under a water dome amid lively aquatic creatures. This interactive feature is intended to generate interest in ocean systems. Top companies from Singapore and Australia will join hands with Indian engineers and designers.
