Imagicaa Next partners with Hello Park to bring immersive play spaces to India

Imagicaa Next Private Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of Imagicaaworld Entertainment Limited, has announced a partnership with Hello Park, the world's largest chain of immersive "phygital" play parks for children. The collaboration marks Imagicaaworld's entry into the Family Entertainment Centre (FEC) segment with an asset-light, in-city format planned for malls and other high-footfall destinations across India. The agreement grants Imagicaa Next exclusive rights to introduce Hello Park in the country.

Present in over 50 global locations, Hello Park integrates interactive projections, gaming, creativity, movement, and learning to transform traditional play areas into digital-enabled, experiential environments. Each park will offer immersive projection zones, interactive games, workshops, storytelling sessions, and family-friendly dining spaces designed to encourage imagination, teamwork, and sensory development.

Madhya Pradesh starts PM Shri Tourism Helicopter Service, first in India

Madhya Pradesh has taken a pioneering leap in the field of tourism by launching the PM Shri Tourism Helicopter Service. Chief Minister Dr. Mohan Yadav flagged off the service at Raja Bhoj International Airport, Bhopal, marking a historic milestone as the state becomes the first in the country to establish intra-state air connectivity.

To enhance air connectivity between major tourist destinations, pilgrimage circuits, and national parks, the helicopter service will operate across three tourism sectors. The PM Shri Tourism Helicopter Service will run five days a week in each sector.

Six Flags America closes after more than 50 years of operation

Six Flags America in Bowie, Maryland has closed after 51 years of operation.

Originally opened in 1974 as a drive-through safari attraction, the park welcomed its final guests on 2 November. Plans to close Six Flags America and its Hurricane Harbor water park were announced in May of this year by Six Flags Entertainment Corporation.

The company said the property, which covers around 500 acres, would be marketed for redevelopment and was closing as part of Six Flags' ongoing portfolio review.
