BOUNCEinc Unveils India's Largest Indoor Trampoline and Adventure Park in Gurugram

BOUNCEinc, the world's largest network of trampoline and adventure parks, has officially opened its newest venue in Gurugram, introducing NCR's biggest indoor trampoline and adventure destination. Located at M3M Corner Walk, Sector 74, Gurugram, the 60,000 sq. ft. park marks another milestone in BOUNCEinc's India expansion after successful venues in Mumbai and Bengaluru.

The Gurugram venue features 100 interconnected trampolines, 50 activities that includes a multi-layer X-Park and High Ropes Adventure Zone, and NCR's largest 8,000 sq. ft. Kids' Zone. With attractions like Wall Run, Zip Line, Dodgeball, Slam Dunk, Big Bag, and the Super Tramp, India's largest high-performance trampoline used in professional gymnastics, the park offers a comprehensive mix of fun, excitement and safety for all age groups.

Safety and security of guests have always been central to the design and operations of BOUNCE Gurugram. All equipment and trampolines are sourced from certified international manufacturers across Australia and Europe and meet global standards for durability and performance. Each activity area is monitored by trained hosts to ensure guests enjoy a secure environment while exploring the park's freestyle experiences.

Guinness World Records to open first UK entertainment venue at The O2

The O2 in London will be home to the first permanent Guinness World Records entertainment venue in the UK.

Due to launch in late 2026, the new 25,000-square-foot attraction will combine competitive socialising with the "thrill of record breaking", according to a press release. Guests will get to attempt more than 50 official Guinness World Records titles across six challenge areas. The venue will also include themed F&B and retail.

The new Guinness World Records attraction will join The O2's existing attractions, which include TOCA Social, Mamma Mia! The Party, Activate, Hollywood Bowl and iFly Indoor Skydiving.
